

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is very unfair to Senator Kerry. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The requirement that both sides be represented and given equal time, is not being met. Perhaps Sinclair stations should also be required to run the pro Kerry film "Going Upriver" following the anti-Kerry documentary.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to stronger media ownership rules. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
